

Felsham & Gedding

Village News

Welcome to the July issue of the magazine

I'll begin by apologising for this issue being just a tad late. The mag has been round the houses, a bit this month, as several of the editors have had issues varying from, moving older relatives to unexpected arrivals, but we got there eventually.

But less of that there's plenty of things to interest almost everyone in this issue, including things to do in the woods, joining FAGENDS in the Village Hall or why not join a trip to the seaside (children half price). And all Felsham students either starting or already in College/University don't forget to apply for your Education Grant - details inside.

As for me, I'll be dashing about even more than usual what with two dogs having to visit the vets at regular intervals (and on different days) and.... well read the magazine and you'll get the picture.

June Meeting - Felsham and Gedding W.I.

The June meeting was well attended and the business swiftly dealt with. The Secretary concluded with an interesting resume of the Annual Meeting before Jen Shuttlewood was introduced.

Due to illness of the arranged speaker a substitute had to be found swiftly and Jen stepped into the breach at very short notice to give a talk on the W.I. in Scotland where she had been a member from 1989 to 2013 whilst living in Argyle.

The Scottish Women's Institute was previously known as' The Rural"- SWRI Scotland Women's Rural Institute – the name was changed last year and hasn't been overly popular.

It was surprising to learn about the differences in the structure and running.

Meetings are only held September to May, the reason being that many members are running B&Bs .whereas we have a meeting every month of the year.

Many events are held at all levels from National down to Institutes, and this year being their centenary year, are as diverse as knitting brightly coloured coats for dark haired dogs!

Apparently dozens are languishing in Scottish rescue centres overlooked and denied the chance of a home because of the colour of their fur, so the SWI, (in conjunction with the SPCA) as part of their centenary celebrations, has whipped out the knitting needles and wool to clad the sad pooches in multi coloured garments. Then there is the Save Scottish Crafts Campaign, the inevitable best shortbread challenge (won by an 80 year old), gardening competitions, the list is all encompassing so as to leave your correspondent slightly breathless but full of admiration.

Next month, July 11th, the guest speaker, Rodney Tibbs will give a talk entitled 'A Fresh look at the Fens', why not join us, 7.30 in the Village Hall.

Celebrate the heroes in your community

Nominations are now open for the Community Action Suffolk Awards 2017 (supported by Birketts Solicitors), which recognise the volunteers, communities and young people making an impact on the lives of people in Suffolk.

Eight awards will be presented to individuals and organisations in Suffolk, from Village Hall or Community Building of the Year to the Outstanding Contribution to Volunteering award. If you know of someone, or an organisation making a real difference, you have until Friday 21 July 2017 to make your nomination via the CAS website www.communityactionsuffolk.org.uk/awards.

Frekenham Village Hall, near Mildenhall, won the 2016 Village Hall or Community Building of the Year award. Jane Leitch, Secretary to the Trustees at the Hall, said:

"It is so lovely to be recognised for the hard work and occasional sleepless nights! The Hall will be 20 years old in 2017 and we have come a long way from just having a Mother & Toddler group or the occasional bingo session, lunch or outing to the seaside!"

The Hall Committee consists of a dedicated group of enthusiastic volunteers who ensure an inclusive, active programme of events including farmers markets, film nights, exercise classes and live entertainment. They work hard to make the building more sustainable, having installed solar panels and upgraded the lighting system to save energy, and with plans to install a more energy efficient heating system.

Judith Gunion won an award in 2016 for her volunteering achievements, giving her time to many local, national and international events. Judith said:

"I can't believe I'm stood here inspiring others, when only a few years ago I was just one of 270,000 people who applied to be a London 2012 Gamesmaker. Volunteering is a fantastic way of learning that you can push your boundaries. You will learn from it, grow from it and in time you will pass on those skills to others. So take the first step. Start small and then let the world be your oyster".

The eight CAS Awards are:

- The Anne Dunford OBE award for Youth Participation
- The Roddy Macleod award for Youth Club of the Year
- The Andrew Towers award for Young Person of the Year
- The Colonel Probert award for Community Initiative
- The Ian Campbell MBE award for Individual Initiative
- The Village Hall / Community Building award (supported by CAS Insurance Services)
- Outstanding Contribution to Volunteering (supported by My CharityGuard)
- Event Organiser of the Year (supported by Larking Gowen)

Awards will be presented at CAS's Annual Celebration event on 26 September 2017 at the Museum of East Anglian Life. Visit www.communityactionsuffolk.org.uk/awards for more information and to make your nominations.

Communities share views to improve health and care services in Suffolk

We're Healthwatch. We listen to your views about local NHS and social care services so that we can make them better for everyone.

We have just launched our fourth annual report, which covers the year 2016/17. It tells you how we have been working and using people's experiences to shape, influence and improve local services throughout the year.

Five ways that health and care services have improved:

1. Maternity services increased support for birthing partners and changed policies so that birthing partners can stay with mum and baby overnight.
2. People will receive improved support and information to help them manage their risk of complications from foot disease caused by diabetes.
3. Residential and nursing homes have made changes that will improve the experience of some of Suffolk's most vulnerable people following visits by our volunteers.
4. We made safeguarding alerts that have led to immediate improvements to people's care.
5. We delivered patient feedback that helped to shape pathology services in Sudbury, including improvements to IT systems and access to appointments.

In our annual report, we highlight outcomes from our work that has included specific research projects, visits to local services and work across all levels of health and social care. Further examples include:

- Decisions to keep In Vitro Fertilisation (IVF) and Marginalised and Vulnerable Adults services were strongly influenced by public feedback we obtained in partnership with NHS leaders.
- Prompted by calls from young people for more information, we developed a new poster and information card that will help young people to find support.
- We worked closely with new GP partnerships to shape their plans for developing services by engaging patients within surgeries.
- We were central to the launch of a new Dementia Forum for Suffolk that will aim to change the way dementia support is provided in Suffolk.

In addition, we have helped many people that contacted our free Information and Signposting Service to find support with their health and wellbeing needs.

Andy Yacoub (Chief Executive) said:

"People have a keen interest in their health and social care services and rightly so. Throughout the year, we have met many people; talking to them about their experiences and using them to influence decisions about our local services. We are proud of the impact we have made and, with increasing awareness of Healthwatch throughout the County, we know that our voice and influence can only increase with positive outcomes for patients, service users and carers throughout Suffolk."

More information is available within the Healthwatch Suffolk Annual Report 2016/17. Visit: www.healthwatchesuffolk.co.uk. You can also call 01449 703949 to find out more.

Dear Friends,

I have a confession to make. I love ‘iplayer’. This afternoon whilst wrestling with service rosters and other such things I was also listening to Rick Wakeman choosing his favourite songs for Radio 4’s ‘Desert Island Discs’. During the interview he talked about marriage – having been married four times he spoke about the fact that he was very committed to marriage, but that it had just taken him four times to get it right!

The wedding season is in full swing, and I shall be conducting marriages in our church over the next few months. However, there are many who have lost their marriage partners either through divorce or death, and I pray for them as well as those preparing for their own weddings.

As Christians we sometimes call the Church ‘the bride of Christ’. There are parallels between the commitment of a couple and the commitment of us as followers of Christ to our Church. At the end of June we remembered our patron saint at St Peter’s in Felsham, who was told by Jesus that he would receive the keys of the kingdom.

Peter was a very interesting character, and many Christians find his life inspiring. We know from the bible that he was a fisherman with his brother Andrew on the sea of Galilee. He was married, had a strong north country accent, and was warm, quick and impulsive by nature. Jesus called him ‘the Rock’, and said that he would build his church upon this rock. Peter denied Jesus three times before he was crucified, but after Jesus’ resurrection went on to lead the Church in Rome, and may even have died just as Jesus did, by crucifixion, although the story goes that he asked to be crucified upside down as he was not worthy to die as Jesus had done.

We can all take comfort that Peter showed those very human qualities – and yet was trusted by Jesus to lead his Church. It means that we don’t have to be perfect in the eyes of God (whatever that might mean) – we can just be ourselves.

Yours in Christ,
Revd Sharon

Felsham & Gedding Sale Trail 2017

Sunday 27th August 2017

Time 10.00 till 14.30

As last year's Sale Trail was a big success, we have decided to organise another Sale Trail for 2017.

A sale trail is a great way to sell all your unwanted items from the comfort of your own Garden, Garage or Driveway... Letting buyers come to you and a great community event!

To take part in this year's Sale Trail, there is a small charge of £5 per household, which will need to be paid prior to the event and before maps are printed. This fee includes either your garden / garage or driveway being included on an organised printed Sale Trail Map of Felsham & Gedding. All monies raised from this small charge will be going back into our village.

We are also looking for volunteers that would be interested in lending a hand in any way with organising this event. Anyone interested please let me know?

To take part please contact Kayleigh or Steven on 737040 or email kayleigh8585@gmail.com Alternatively please fill in the slip below and return to 10 Cockfield Road.

The closing date for all enquiry slips to be handed in is the 1st of August 2017. This is so we can see how many people / households would like to take part, so that we can organise this event. Once we know how many people / households would like to take part in this event, we will be collecting all monies and printing sale trail maps & signs.
Thank you, Kayleigh and Steven.

I would be interested in selling my items on the Felsham & Gedding Sale Trail 2017. Please provide your name and address & contact details below:

High Quality, Outdoor Free Range, Rescue Hens

from an organic farm

Intelligent. Friendly. Well brought up*.

*although, on occasions, have been known to crash unattended human breakfast tables (but they usually lay plenty of eggs to more than make up for it).

Available regularly throughout the year to homes in E Suffolk/ NE Essex. As they currently have free access to acres of meadow, they would need you to have an adequate sized run.

If you think you might be able to offer a suitable home, please email:

hen.rescue@yahoo.co.uk

If you haven't kept this type, or any type, of hens before, we are very happy to give advice/guidance to get you started in a way that suits your situation.

Not for profit. £3.00 per hen, usually minimum 4. Delivered to you direct in stated area. Delivery fee £5.00 may apply.

The following is a Police Connect message

Police are reminding residents to be alert for telephone scams after an incident in Ipswich.

On Monday 12th June, an elderly man received a phone call from someone saying they were from the tax office and that the resident owed money. He was then told he would be arrested unless he purchased £500 of iTunes vouchers.

The elderly resident suspected something wasn't right and reported the incident to police.

Police have also received reports of scam tax emails being sent telling people that they have a tax rebate and to log on to a website with their details.

Fraudsters are contacting the elderly & vulnerable claiming to be from HM Revenue & Customs and victims are being told that they have arrest warrants, outstanding debts or unpaid taxes in their name. If you receive a suspicious cold call, end it immediately and report it to police.

HMRC will never use texts to tell you about a tax rebate or penalty and will never ask for payment in this way.

Telephone numbers and text messages can easily be spoofed. You should never trust the number you see on your telephones display.

YOU OFF TO COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY? OR ARE YOU ALREADY THERE?

If you live in Felsham and the answer to either of these questions is yes then don't forget to apply for your Education Bursary from the Village Charity.

- Write a short letter to the charity telling us where you're going and what course you'll be doing.
- Send the letter to me - Tricia Wilson, 12 Meadow Close, Felsham
- Apply for the grant every year that you're on the course.

Make a butterfly feeding table wildlife

watch

You will need

- Four metal screw eyes
- 30cm square piece of plywood
- String
- Jam jar lids
- Sugar solution (sugar dissolved in hot water – use when cool)
- Coloured card
- Scissors

- ① Screw the metal eyes into the four corners of the plywood.

- ② Thread a one-metre piece of string through two of the eyes and over a tree branch before securing with a knot. Repeat for the other side of the table.

- ③ Pour sugar solution into jam jar lids and carefully place them on the table.

- ④ The butterflies will be attracted by the sugar solution, but try making your table more appealing by cutting flower shapes from coloured card and placing them under the lids on the table.

Make sure the table isn't hanging at an angle.

Do the butterflies prefer different colours or shapes?
